

Buyers Interest Contingency (Difference in Conditions) Clause

(Registration No.: 09AD2020000210179)

Where goods consigned to or for the Insured's account have already been insured elsewhere but on terms which are more restrictive than that which would be provided hereunder or where the Insured is unable to obtain settlement of legitimate claims under the insurance arranged elsewhere then such goods shall be covered on terms and conditions that shall apply hereunder subject to the following.

a) Disclosure of the existence of this insurance to any third party shall render it null and void.

b) The Insured has suffered a pecuniary loss.

c) This insurance is for the benefit of the Insured hereunder only and not to be treated as double insurance.

d) Upon settlement of any claim hereunder Underwriters will be subrogated to all rights and remedies of the Insured against all third parties including the Insured's suppliers and such rights will be assigned to Underwriters.

To include the transit from port or airport in the country of destination to final destination should cover under the insurance arranged elsewhere cease at said port or airport.

When required by the Insured Insurers agree to supply General Average Guarantee or refund General Average Deposits.