

Additional Discharge Expenses

(Registration No.: 09AD2022000210306)

In the event of damage to the Subject matter insured giving rise to a recoverable claim hereunder the Underwriter shall pay any additional expenses reasonably incurred by the Assured in discharging, handling, sorting, reloading or transporting sound and/or damaged goods by any means other than the normal methods or other than at normal cost.

The Underwriter shall be credited with the recovery where such charges are recovered either in general average or from the carriers.

The amount payable shall be limited to (as indicated herein) any one loss and (as indicated herein) in the aggregate in the policy year.