

LOADING AND UNLOADING

(Registration No.: 09AD2022000210461)

This insurance extends to cover the interest insured against the risks incurred whilst any loading and unloading operation connected with an insured voyage is carried out.

Loading: Risk attaches from the time the interest is first moved for the purpose of placing on to the conveying vehicle for transit to a destination outside the premises.

Unloading: Risk attaches from the time of lifting the interest from the conveyance and terminates once the interest is placed within the receiver's premises but excludes any period of dismantling, erection, commissioning, testing or storage other than in the ordinary course of transit.
