

Loss Preparation, Handling and Survey Costs

(Registration No.: 09AD2022000210384)

Costs of discharge, storing, sorting, removal of not destroyed goods, surveys and all other charges where all such charges are incurred in connection with ascertaining the extent of loss of and/or damage to the subject matter insured shall be recoverable hereunder irrespective of whether or not any damage is discovered and irrespective of whether any damage that is discovered is ultimately found to have been caused by the operation of an insured peril.

Where such discharge, storage, sorting, surveys or other activities undertaken to ascertain the extent of any loss or damage as provided above extends beyond the period allowed in terms of the Institute Cargo Clause herein, this insurance shall continue until the subject matter insured has been delivered to the final destination or otherwise disposed of and the Assured's risk has ceased.

If a claim exceeds (the amount stated herein), this Policy extends to include costs and expenses necessarily incurred in the preparation of claims for submission to the Insurer including but not limited to clerical labor costs and consultants. This special extension is limited to (the amount stated herein).