

Test and Requalification Expenses

(Registration No.: 09AD2022000210352)

Cover hereunder is extended to include any expenses properly and reasonably incurred by the Assured for the purpose of testing and requalification of transformers and/or components and/or other cargo for suspected and/or possible loss or damage arising from the operation of an insured peril, notwithstanding that it may subsequently be proven that such transformers and/or components and/or other cargo did not sustain actual physical loss or damage as a result of the occurrence.
