

South American Clause

(Registration No.: 09AD2021000210243)

With respect to all shipments to South America, notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere herein to the contrary, (particularly the Warehouse to Warehouse and Marine Extension Clauses) the insurance provided hereunder shall continue to cover for sixty (60) days (ninety (90) days on shipments via the Magdalena River) after completion of discharge of the overseas vessel at port of destination or until the goods are delivered to the final warehouse at destination, whichever may first occur, and shall then terminate.

The time limit referred to above to the reckoned from midnight of the day on which the discharge of the overseas vessel is completed.