K216 Successive Losses Clause

It is agreed and understood that, if, upon termination of the validity hereof, the losses of the insured property are still going on, and there is no other policy available to cover the indemnification, in either total or any part, against such losses, then any and all of the losses shall be deemed to have occurred prior to the said termination and the Insurer shall bear the indemnification liability accordingly.

This clause is subject otherwise to the terms, conditions and exclusions of this Policy.
